

Bank Gutmann has immense expertise in handling wealth, whilst at the same time understanding the needs of its clients. The bank's highest level of consultancy competence, as well as its market leader role in Austria is reflected in the number of independent awards. The clients of Gutmann include domestic and foreign companies, foundations, wealthy private persons, and families, as well as institutional, corporate clients.

On the Hungarian site, in Budapest, the main focus lies on private asset management, in the course of which the wealthy first generation private clients are helped with thorough expertise.

In line with this, the team also gives advice on all the wide range of Gutmann's portfolio – tailor-made service, with local focus.
