

Pál Ivancsics is member of the board of directors at PBG FMC Ltd. He graduated from the Technical University, Faculty of Electrical Engineering, became scientific staff at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Technical Physics and Materials Science. In the mid-90s he served as IT director at Westel Mobile Telecommunications Ltd. He holds an MBA degree of The Open University, United Kingdom. He became Director for Strategic Business Development and later CIO at T-Mobile Hungary Ltd. From 2008, he worked as Director for Innovation Technology at Magyar Telekom Ltd. He has held directorial positions at several telecom, IT, venture capital and other investment companies and funds. He takes part in the decision-makings of PBG's activities related to investments.