

Ágost Wildner is part of the Portus Buda Group's Board of Directors. After graduating at the Peter Pazmany Catholic University, he filled leading positions in a variety of media companies, followed by becoming the founding owner of the PBG Group and one of its Directors. With his management, a number of subsidiaries have been established in the field of real estate development, energetics and hospitality, such as Servitor Pro Multis Nonprofit Ltd., with Nissen Ltd. also being connected to his name.

As the owner of enterprises, from the very start, he has felt it vital that a company should not only be involved in profit-making, but in creating a social impact as well.
